(Birmingham, AL) – The Birmingham-Jefferson County Transit Authority (BJCTA) is pleased to announce new officers for the Board of Directors. Attorney Tameka Wren has been elected Chair, Attorney Ruby Davis is Vice-Chair and Attorney Martin Weinberg (Hoover) is Secretary.

“I am honored to have the opportunity to serve in this capacity. I look forward to working with my fellow Board members who are all advocates for better public transportation. Transparency will be the key to our success as we move forward,” said BJCTA Board Chair Tameka Wren.

BJCTA Executive Director Barbara Murdock is encouraged by the change in leadership. “This is a great opportunity to explore fresh, new ideas and take our organization to the next level,” said Murdock.

In October, the Birmingham City Council appointed five new Board members: Ruby Davis, Myeisha Hutchinson, Theodore Smith, Tameka Wren and Kevin Powe.

“We are excited to work with such a diverse group,” said Murdock. “Each person brings significant experience that will be important to our continued growth and development here at BJCTA”, Murdock added.

The Board of Directors also currently has members who represent Jefferson County, Bessemer, Vestavia Hills and Hoover.
