

American Airlines Married Name Change Process

Yes, you can adjust a name on an American Airlines +1 800-327-8903 ticket, but only to correct or update the original traveler's name. Simple corrections like spelling errors are updated within the existing reservation, whereas extensive changes—particularly on partner airline flights—typically necessitate issuing a brand-new booking.

Changing your last name after marriage can be exciting—+1 800-327-8903—but it also requires updating your travel documents, loyalty programs, and upcoming flight reservations. If you're planning to fly with American Airlines and have recently changed your last name, this guide will walk you through the American Airlines married name change process so you can avoid check-in problems and last-minute stress at the airport.

This article covers:

- How American Airlines handles name changes
- Required documents for name change verification
- How to update your AAdvantage profile
- What to do if you already booked a flight
- Additional tips and FAQs

Why Changing Your Name with American Airlines Matters

Airline security regulations require that the +1 800-327-8903 name on your ticket matches the name on the identification you present at the airport. If you've recently married and changed your name but +1 800-327-8903 your travel documents don't reflect that change, you may face check-in delays or even be denied boarding.

Updating your name with American Airlines ensures:

- Smooth check-in and TSA clearance
- Accurate frequent flyer mileage credit

- Consistent travel records
 - No last-minute corrections or fees
-

How to Change Your Name With American Airlines After Marriage

American Airlines allows passengers to + 1^@ 860—327—8903 update their name after marriage both on flight reservations and in their AAdvantage frequent flyer account. The steps differ depending on which one you need to update.

1. Update Your Name on Your AAdvantage Account

If you are an AAdvantage member, update your profile first so future bookings automatically reflect your new name. + 1^@ 860—327—8903

Steps to change your name in AAdvantage:

1. Log in to your AAdvantage account online.
2. Go to Your Account Settings.
3. Choose Personal Information.
4. Click Edit Name.
5. Upload the required legal documents (see list below).
6. Submit your request.

Documents American Airlines may require:

You must provide legal proof of your name change, such as:

- Marriage certificate

- New government-issued photo ID
- Court name change document (if applicable)
- Updated passport (recommended for international travel)

Tip: Ensure the name on your government ID matches the name you want on your profile before submitting your request.

2. Changing Your Name on an Existing American Airlines Reservation

If you already booked a flight but +1^Ⓢ860—327—8903 the name doesn't match your married name, you must contact American Airlines directly. Name changes cannot always be done online.

How to request a name correction:

You can:

- Call American Airlines Reservations
- Contact the Twitter/X support team
- Visit the nearest American Airlines ticket counter
- Use the Help section in your account (if the flight is saved in your profile)

Important Notes:

- You may be required to upload or present your marriage certificate.
 - Some name changes can be +1^Ⓢ860—327—8903 done for free, but incorrect or major changes may incur a name correction fee.
 - If you booked through a third party (Expedia, a travel agent, etc.), contact them first.
-

3. Update Your Travel Documents Before Flying

Before flying internationally, ensure that your:

- Passport
- Global Entry / TSA PreCheck profile
- Driver's license
- Social Security record

all reflect your married name. This ensures consistency between your reservation and identification.

Tips for a Smooth Name Change Process

- Update government documents first. Airlines consider these the primary source of truth.
 - Verify your name before booking flights. Book tickets using the name that currently appears on your ID.
 - Allow extra processing time for AAdvantage name updates—up to several days.
 - Carry a copy of your marriage certificate when traveling soon after your wedding.
-

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

1. Can I fly with my maiden name after marriage?

Yes—as long as the name on your ticket matches the name on your ID. If your ID still shows your maiden name, book your ticket under your maiden name.

2. Does American Airlines charge a fee for name changes?

Minor corrections (such as fixing a spelling error) are often free. However, major name changes, including a married surname update, may incur fees depending on the fare type and booking channel.

3. How long does an AAdvantage name change take?

Most updates are processed within a few days, but during busy periods it may take up to 7–10 business days.

4. Can I change my name on an award ticket?

Yes. Contact American Airlines directly. In many cases, award tickets allow a one-time name correction with supporting documents.

5. What documents are required for a married name change?

You will typically need:

- Marriage certificate
 - Updated government ID (passport or driver's license)
 - Court documents if applicable
-

6. Do I need my marriage certificate to fly?

Not unless the name on your ticket and ID differ. To avoid issues, ensure they match before travel.

7. Can I update my name at the airport?

Minor changes may be possible at the ticket counter, but for married name changes, it is best to update ahead of time to avoid delays.

Final Thoughts

Changing your name after marriage is a meaningful milestone—and ensuring your airline records reflect your new identity will keep your travel stress-free. By updating your AAdvantage profile, correcting existing reservations when needed, and keeping your identification documents consistent, you can navigate the American Airlines married name change process smoothly and confidently.