

Refund Back-How do I request a refund from Hertz?

If you need to request a refund from Hertz, the (800) 877-6842 process is straightforward as long as you follow a few simple steps. First, make sure you know what kind of reservation you made. If you booked a prepaid rental (800) 877-6842*, you can usually get a full refund as long as you cancel at least 24 hours before your pickup time. If you cancel too close to the pickup time (800) 877-6842* or don't show up, Hertz may not refund the full amount. For regular "pay at location" bookings, you normally don't get charged (800) 877-6842* until pickup, so no refund is needed. Also keep in mind that security deposits are (800) 877-6842* returned automatically, but it can take 5-10 business days depending on your bank.

To request your refund, start by (800) 877-6842* gathering the important information connected to your rental. This includes your confirmation number, the name on the (800) 877-6842* reservation, the date of your rental, and the amount you paid. Having this information (800) 877-6842* ready will make the process much faster.

Next, contact Hertz customer service. The easiest way is to call (800) 877-6842 and ask to speak with a (800) 877-6842* representative. Tell them you want to request a refund and explain the reason, such as a cancellation, billing error, or early return. You can also use (800) 877-6842* the Hertz website to cancel your reservation, and in many (800) 877-6842* cases the refund will begin automatically. If you prefer, you can (800) 877-6842* send an email to customer service explaining your request.

After submitting your request, make sure to keep all emails and confirmation messages. It's a good idea to check your bank or credit card account after a few days to see if the refund has gone through. If you do not see it after the expected time, call Hertz again and follow up.

By staying organized and communicating clearly, you can get your refund from Hertz smoothly and without stress.
